

Place: Pune

Press Note

Date: 8 .12. 2014

- “O Balle... Balle... Balle... Balle... Balle... ”
‘PUNJAB DA CHASKA’: A FOOD FESTIVAL organized by
Suryadatta Hotel Management on Friday, 12th Dec 2014

Suryadatta Group of institute Pune’s, Surayadatta college of Hospitality Management, Travel and Tourism (SCHMTT), affiliated to Pune University for bachelors degree & YCMOU for post graduate degree, is ranked among top 10 Hotel Management Institutes in the country for last decade. SCHMTT has many feathers in its cap as honors and rewards for best placement of its students in 5 Star & 7 Star Hospitality properties in India as well as abroad, Best Hotel Management Institute in India, partnership with AHLEI (American Hotel & Lodging Education Institute),etc. SCHMTT since its inception has given 100% placements of its students. The key of SCHMTT’s success, lies in the fact that they are not focused academically only but ensure that they provide ready to take over professionals to hotel industries through its ‘add on’ value programs which helps multifaceted development of its students.

As a part of co-curricular activities, International & National Theme Food Festivals are organized by SCHMTT. On Friday, 12th December 2014, SCHMTT will take its patrons to the wonder land of five rivers: Beas, Sutlej, Chenab, Ravi & Jhelum: ‘The Great Punjab’. The ‘Food Festival of Punjab’ is aptly named as ‘Punjab Da Chaska’ and is open for all from 7.00pm to 10.00pm at Suryadatta’s Bavdhan campus, Pune. For sumptuous & full of variety at Rs. 350/- only per person. Entry open for all.

Mouth watering varieties of Parathas, Tandoor Rotis dripping in Butter & Ghee, Makke di Roti, Sarason-da-saag, Hot & Spicy Tandoori Chicken, Rajma Chawal, Chole Bhature & What not? You name it & the Punjabi genie' chef will be at your service, with sweet dishes. The students of SCHMTT will be detouring the guests to a typical Punjabi village as the ambience will be replica of such village. The guests will be tempted to tap their feet to the vigor of Punjabi Bhangra, Giddha & Dhol being presented by students.

This food festival is open for all & it is expected that 'Whos' who from hospitality industry of Pune would visit this festival. Another attraction of this 'Mela' is, 'Lucky Draw' of the entry coupons. The Lucky ones will get really such attractive prizes that no one will like to miss.

For SCHMTT students, indeed, this event is an unique opportunity for hands on experience in Event Management, Guest Handling and Food & Beverage operational skills.

So, what are you waiting for? Book your evening of 12th December 2014 in the name of Punjabi Food Festival organized by Suryadatta Hotel Management Institute.

For Entry tickets contact: 020-67901347, 8956932408.
