In his inaugural address he recalled various changes that have taken place in the policies of the Govt and the resultant effect on economy. Dr.Chordiya highlighted the fact of the Prime Minister who considers himself as “Pradhan Sevak” interacting with the common man through Face Book, Twitter, Radio Talk thereby involving the 125 crore citizens in the march for development.

He drew the attention of the audience to the various activities of NDA Govt. such as, “Call to domestic producers to make “zero-defect” products ensuring “zero-effect” on the environment”, “Call to global manufacturers to “Make-in-India and sell anywhere”, Bank accounts for all through the Prime Minister’s Jan-Dhan Yojana, “Maximum Governance Minimum Government” and “Swachh Bharat Abhiyan involving various celebrities”.

Guest of Honour Shri Abhijeet Joshi, Chief Manager, Bank of Maharashtra, appreciated the efforts of Suryadatta Group in imparting quality education and wished that Suryadatta would become a top management institute in the whole world.

Guest Speaker Shri Chandrashekhhar Tilak, Vice President, NSDL, Mumbai delivered a highly thought provoking speech on the Indian Economy. He gave the example of Manipur which has contributed to Indian sports immensely due to its planned efforts to encourage sports industry which can be emulated all over India. He spoke about vast career opportunities in Insurance Sector for Actuaries and in Education industry for managing education.

“Prime Minister has given an India centric Global Vision for development of all with the involvement of all” said Chandrashekhar Tilak.

Guest Speaker for after noon session Mr.Sampat Iyyer, Retd AVP, Axis Bank Ltd presented facts and figures about various economic indicators to show how the Sensex, GDP, FDI, Investors’ sentiments, Brand Image of India have risen in a short span, and how the inflation, corruption, legal hurdles have declined. He emphasized on the transparency, speed in decision making, accountability, honesty and integrity followed by the NDA Government.

Dr. P K Ghosh, Dr. Rohit Kichloo, Prof. Shantilal Hajeri, Prof. Pranjali Unkule, Prof. Varsha Murhe & Prof. Deepak Singh were the organizing committee members of all these seminars. All the seminars were attended by nearly 300 students, industrialists and working professionals.

While proposing the vote of thanks ,students expressed that such seminars are must for them because such exposures bridges the gap between the concepts and theories they learn in the four walls of the class rooms and the realities happening in the global economy and industries, particularly in India. This practical aspects empowers them with confidence of excelling in interviews, interaction with industrial stalwarts etc.
