

Defy stress, suicidal thoughts- Siddharth Jadhav

Suryadatta felicitates “Sashan” team

If you are under extreme stress, have addiction or suicidal tendencies; before you take any harsh step think about your parents. You will realize their unconditional love and uncountable sacrifices done by them for your life, said Marathi actor Siddharth Jadhav. He was interacting with students of Suryadatta campus. He was there to promote his upcoming film “Shasan”.

Renowned Marathi Film Actors Makarand Anaspure, Siddharth Jadhav, Aditi Bhagawat had visited Suryadatta Group of Institutes Bavdhan campus, for the promotion of their film “Shasan”

Jadhav further added that it is a different movie based on the different systems existing in the current scenario. He also told that there is lot of competition in each and every area so be confident and face the competition. This film is for each and every member of the society. The film is for the one who want to do something different in his/her lifespan. The film points out corruption, atrocity (torture), weakness of our society.

Makarand Anaspure interacted with the enthusiastic crowd. About the film he shared that Shasan is the film based on Politics and how each one gets involved and entangled in the politics. He also urged students to it is never late so start from where you are...

Aditi Bhagawat said that her role in Shasan is aggressive and based on exploitation. She gave to message to Suryans that “Go Ahead but be connected with your Roots. She also conveyed that though we are going towards Western culture but for progress we must be connected with culture only.
