Students Should acquire ability to differentiate good scripts & bad Script of Life.- – renowned Film actor Ashish Vidyarthi says to Suryadatta Students during the seminar on, ‘Future Belongs to you’; Suryadatta Knowledge Management Initiative

The students of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, witnessed another shining facet of the personality of Renowned film actor Mr. Ashish Vidyarthi as a motivational speaker and a trainer. Recently Mr. Ashish Vidyarthi visited Suryadatta Group of Institutes and established an instant rapport with more than thousand students while guiding them on the topic, “Future belongs to you”. He had woven his address very skillfully as a dialogue with the students through questions- answers and as a backdrop of his address he selected a typical film making process which generated lot of interest among the students. He told them to give respect to anyone and everyone who is with you. For good script writing, he asked the students what are the qualities required? The answers were imagination, creativity, communication and action.

Mr. Vidyarthi elaborated on these points. Only creative minds can get the idea of good script. Good script can become reality with good communication skills. He said the foundation of the script of your life is what you think about yourself and what you want to be in your life. The starting point of such creativity is inspiration and motivation from the role models. It’s everybody’s responsibility to dream about bright future. And along with this, there is a responsibility to understand and respect the dreams of others. Once the script is ready you have to start the ground work and this requires your confidence and faith in yourself.

He advised the students acquire the ability to differentiate between good script and bad script and where to add the spices of different flavors, in this good script to make the life more interesting. The various characters who are playing roles in your script of life are your parents, teachers, friends and society by large. Except for the parents, rest of the cast, you have to select very carefully, because they contribute for the successful script..... Life.

He emphasized the students that the beginning of each mission is minuscule just like 'Gangotri' becoming 'Ganga'. Here he explained Zen philosophy. The opportunity knocks your door once and if you miss it, you missed it forever, so don't drop the ball and begin now and here itself.

Once the script is written, that is, you have decided what you want to be in your life and start making the film, you should ensure the melodious music for it. Don't imagine to include the things in the film of your life which are not realistic otherwise it may lead to depression and frustration. This sequence should follow now with action and implementation. Action means 'Act On It' and when you are acting on your script never give up. Giving up is not the solution of the problem.

Once the film of your life is getting completed you have to get involved into editing and editing means to make the changes, amendments, improvement for betterment.

If you write such a script, he said I assure you the film of your life will be a huge hit after it is released and release means starting of your career. Starting the career means your partnership with the corporate world and the success of your partnership depends on your capability and uniqueness. You should be an asset to the company whichever selects you to continue your partnership with them. He concluded his address by saying if the students write the script of their life by taking care of the tips given by him the 'Future Belongs to Them'.

On this occasion, Mr. Ashish Vidyarthi was felicitated by the Founder President and Chairman Prof. Dr. Sanjay B. Chordiya and Secretary, Mrs. Susham Chordiya of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, by conferring on him 'Suryadatta Excellence Award 2016', for his outstanding contribution to Indian Cinema, Theatre and Television and also for the enrichment of the society through his role as a trainer and motivational speaker. The entire program was organized and managed by the students of Events Management discipline of Suryadatta Institute of Mass Communication and Events Managements (SIMCEM).

Suryadatta Students gave standing ovation and expressed their gratitude to Mr. Ashish Vidyarthi for explaining Success Mantra in simple words.
