Pune: City based Prof. Dr. Sanjay B Chordia, Founder President of Suryadatta Group of Institutes appointed as National Vice-President of Center for Education Growth and Research (CEGR), New Delhi. The appointment is for the next five years and was handed over to him at a recent CEGR meeting. CEGR is the leading and only education think tank in India, credited with four innovations.

CEGR provides a platform for exchange of dialogue among educationists, the media and policy makers and augments educational growth and research. With over 10,000 aligned academicians, corporate and researchers, the CEGR National Council includes His Excellency-Governor of Kerala; Chairman-National Board of Accreditation; Regulators from AICTE; 50 Chancellors and Vice Chancellors from various regions of India and leading industrialists. CEGR is the only education think tank to organize 56 successful events in 14 states on a single day under its flagship social initiative i.e. Indian Education Festival. Indian Education Festival benefited more than 12,500 persons on a single day.

Prof. Dr. Sanjay Chordia expressed happiness over his appointment. He said that, It's my pleasure to have the opportunity to serve as the Vice President of this national level organization which contributes to the growth of the education sector. Leading academics, Institutionals, Vice-Chancellors, Entrepreneurs, Researchers from all over the country reflect on the quality of education. We will continue to work through CEGR to provide better education to the next generation and to enhance the quality of education.

"Suryadatta Group of Institutes striving to provide quality, value and skill based education since the last two decades. Our motive is to implement innovative initiatives in the field of education across the country. It is also an attempt to take our many good and comprehensive development initiatives to the national level. If quality education is easily available to students at all levels, then the development of students, families, society and alternatively the country will take place speedily," further he added.
