Curriculum - MBA (Choice Based Credit System)

SPPU with effect from Academic Year 2013-14, has revised the curriculum for MBA programme which is now based on Choice Based Credit Systems and Grading System. The new Curriculum addresses the expectations of stakeholders in more than one way. Keeping the vision in mind, some more specializations like Rural & Agribusiness Management and Family Business Management have been introduced in the curriculum for the first time. The decision whether to offer one or all specializations would be decided by the institute subject to minimum 20% students enrolment for the specialization.

The new curriculum comprises of Core Courses and Elective Courses. The Credit System enables students to obtain credit which reflects skill a knowledge acquired by him / her that a student progress not in terms of time (years or semesters) but in terms of courses. Generic Core Courses in Semester I provide "Foundations of Management", Generic Core courses in Semester II focus on "Functional Areas" and Generic Core courses in Semester III and Semester IV are "Integrative" in nature alongwith the Subject Core Courses.
