NOTICE NO. 36
NEET UG 2026

Admission to Institutional Quota Seats under BPTH/BOTH/BNYS (Group-C) Courses for the Academic Year 2026-27.

Reference: 1. National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions, Govt. of India, Notice dated 02/11/2026
2. State CET Cell, Notice No. 32 dated 02/11/2026.

The National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions, Government of India, has prescribed 15/11/2026 as the last date for completion of the admission process for Allied and Healthcare Undergraduate Degree Courses, namely BPTH/BOTH/BASLP/B.P&O/BNYS (Group-C), for the Academic Year 2026-27.

As per Information Brochure, the Institute Level round for IQ seats is to be conducted after completion of all CAP rounds. However, considering the limited time available for completion of the process. This office has decided to allow all the colleges to fill their IQ seats between 13/11/2026 to 15/11/2026. The provisions of Clause 9.4.4 of the NEET-UG 2026 Information Brochure, the respective colleges shall invite applications from candidates registered with the State CET Cell for admission to Institutional Quota seats during the period. The admissions shall be given strictly based on merit and in accordance with the prescribed rules and regulations.

Only those candidates who do not have any seat in hand are eligible for this admission process. Candidates holding a seat in hand as on 14/11/2026 shall not be considered for the IQ admission process. However, candidates who have already joined a college are permitted to cancel their joined seat on or before 14/11/2026 to participate in IQ admission process.

The above IQ admission process is permitted as a onetime measure, considering the limited time available for completion of admission. This may not be treated as precedent.

The respective colleges shall give wide publicity to the Institutional Quota admission process by publishing admission-related notices in newspapers, displaying the same on the college notice board and uploading them on their official websites, to ensure that all eligible candidates are adequately informed.

Subsequent CAP round (if any) will be declared in due course subject to extension of cut off date by NCAHP guidelines.

All the candidates should visit State CET Cell official website i.e.www.mahacet.org for updates.
